

What Is Going On Tonight

Vaudeville and Photoplay at the Auditorium. Moving Pictures at Colonial Theatre. Vaudeville and Photoplays at Davis Theatre.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Al. Craig Taylor and Chas. A. Green at Men's Mass Meeting Sunday.

Another real treat is offered to the men of Norwich and vicinity tomorrow (Sunday) at 3.30 o'clock in the large store of the Thayer building when Charles A. Green of New London will deliver an interesting address on the subject of "Derelicts."

Mr. Green's experience in life enables him to speak with authority on this topic and it is expected that a large crowd of men will hear him. In addition to the music by Swallow orchestra, Alex Craig Taylor has kindly consented to sing two selections and his rich voice will be heard with a good deal of applause.

This meeting is free for all men. The doors will be open at 3.30 and the meeting will open at 3.30.

DAVIS THEATRE.

Four Complete Shows—Tonight at 1.30, 3.15, 6.45 and 8.45—Triangle Photo Plays and Keith Vaudeville.

There will be four shows at the Davis theatre today, at 1.30, 3.15, 6.45 and 8.45. The Triangle feature is called Aloha Oe, a five part story production. It is the story of a brilliant but dissipated lawyer who becomes the worshipped member of a South Sea Island tribe and Mack is the chief-tain's daughter, who he marries. The lawyer, crazed by drink, is shipped by his friends on a sailing vessel so that he may recover his manhood in a new environment. The vessel is wrecked and he is the only survivor, rescued by the natives on a South Sea Island.

He escapes to the mountains where he crawls through a vine to the other side. He comes across Eold Markey, the chief-tain's daughter. She has been tied to a post, where the flowing lava will destroy her, because the natives believe that by this sacrifice they will appear the wrath of the divinity of the mountains. Mack takes off the lava and she is freed. He falls down before him, as she thinks he is the son of the God of the mountains which is in eruption. He soon finds out that the natives are not so civilized. As he is passing a restaurant he hears the song of Aloha Oe (farewell), and he is so moved that he has left and that he ships back to the island.

The Triangle Keystone on the bill is called The Village Scoundrel and is a two-reel comedy that is exceptionally good, with Raymond Hitchcock and Fatty Arbuckle as the stars. The three Keith acts are: The Village Scoundrel, a comedy; The Village Scoundrel, a comedy; and The Village Scoundrel, a comedy.

Next Monday another excellent show will be seen here with three good acts including The Dixie Four, a great comedy quartet; Harold Gates, a versatile comedian and Branley and Meredith, a clever team of character comedians.

On this bill is called Jordan in a Hard Road, a five part Griffith production, featuring Dorothy Gish. The Keystone comedy is called The Village Scoundrel, a comedy; and The Village Scoundrel, a comedy.

Pathe Weekly will also be shown. The Village Scoundrel, a comedy; and The Village Scoundrel, a comedy.

COMING TO THE DAVIS.

"The Only Girl."

Admirers of Victor Herbert, the noted composer, who believed he put his best efforts into The Red Mill, Modiste, will no doubt revise their opinion when they have heard The Only Girl, which Joe Weber will present here for the first time at the Davis theatre on Friday evening, February 11th.

Yes, there is a chance that a Bulletin Lost Ad will not find your lost article, but there is a bigger and a better chance that it will.

There are many subscribers of The Bulletin and it is safe betting that one of them found your article.

The cost of a Bulletin Lost Ad is often over-estimated. A three-line word ad costs 45 cents for three times; 90 cents for a whole week.

Compare this cost with the value of the article lost, then you can make a fair decision.

We believe that experience will make you decide in favor of the ad. Call 480, The Bulletin Co.

The results take care of the cost.
